ANNOUNCEMENTS

European funding for research on global challenges

Proposals are now accepted for a joint funding programme between three European foundations: the Wellcome Trust, the Volkswagen Foundation and the Riksbankens Jubileumsfond. Applications have to show a collective, interdisciplinary approach to the following global challenges:

- Climate change
- Global health
- Terrorism/radicalisation
- Migration
- Social inequality

Depending on the goals and scope of the project, successful groups will receive between 500,000 – 900,000 Euros (gross amount) for up to four years of research. The deadline for applications is Thursday 1st September 2016. For more details please refer to the Wellcome Trust website.

NCCPE (National Co-ordinating Centre for Public Engagement) Engage Competition 2016

The NCCPE are running this national competition to find and celebrate high quality public engagement with research projects. They want to recognise UK researchers who are engaging the public in lots of different ways and for lots of different reasons, and reward high quality examples of public engagement in practice. There are six competition categories (Arts, Humanities and Social Sciences / Science, Technology, Engineering and Mathematics (STEM) / Health and Wellbeing / Engaging With Young People / Working In Partnership / Individually Led Projects), and the winner of each category will receive a prize of £1,500 to go towards further public engagement work. Visit the NCCPE Engage Competition 2016 website for more information. The closing date for entries is 12 noon, Monday 18th July.

New cross city bus-link

Universal – a new bus service replacing the Uni4, will start operating from Saturday 23rd July. The bus route will run between Madingley Road Park & Ride and Addenbrooke's Hospital via Cambridge Railway Station, approximately every 15 minutes between 07:00 and 19:30 on Mondays to Fridays. On Saturdays a 20 minute service will operate between Madingley Road Park & Ride and Cambridge Railway Station.

Tennis Court Road and Footpath closure

Monday 13th June – Monday 3rd October

Between the dates above Tennis Court Road will be temporarily closed to complete construction works as part of the project to extend Cambridge Judge Business School. Once completed, a wider pedestrian tunnel will be re-instated and scaffold erected to the remaining facade before the road is re-opened for normal use. This will enable the remainder of the building to be constructed without further disruption until next summer.
