ANNOUNCEMENTS

Dignity@Work – volunteers needed

Dignity@Work is currently recruiting for volunteers to be contacts, to provide confidential advice to those who feel that they are experiencing difficult working relationships, including bullying or harassment. This is an important role vital to supporting and sustaining a positive working environment for all staff, free from any form of unacceptable behavior.

Details of the Role Description are available on Pavilion and Research Group notice boards. If you have any queries please do not hesitate to contact DignityContacts@admin.cam.ac.uk.

Photography Competition – Faculty of Mathematics

Help highlight the study, work and life at the Faculty of Mathematics by entering the Faculty photography competition.

Entries are invited from students and staff based at the Centre for Mathematical Sciences, under the following categories:

- Mathematics at Cambridge – displaying some aspect of mathematical understanding, teaching or research. This could be a photograph or a computer-generated image.
- Life at CMS – highlighting the people who study and work here.
- Mobile Maths – images which have been captured and processed on mobile/cell phones. This includes panorama's, Instagram and Prisma shots.

The deadline for entries is 30th June 2017, and the judging panel will award a £100 Amazon voucher to each category winner, with an additional £100 voucher going to an overall winner. The winning photos will also be printed and displayed at CMS.

For more information and to enter, please visit <https://www.maths.cam.ac.uk/photocomp> and if you have any questions please contact Gareth Marlow.

EVENTS

Betty & Gordon Moore Library - Wikimedian in Residence Training Sessions

As part of the Wikimedian in Residence project, Dr Charles Matthews will give a series of training sessions in the Glass Room in late June/early July. These sessions will cover topics such as an introduction to Wikipedia, its database Wikidata, as well as the reliability of Wikipedia, and what you might do about it. Each session will be a combination of a talk followed by a Q&A session, with an additional hands-on practical element.

For more information about our Wikimedian in Residence, as well as booking information for the sessions (which will open soon), please visit the Moore Library's website.

Festival of Wellbeing

Monday 26th June – Friday 7th July

The University is hosting its annual programme of health and wellbeing events. This is a fantastic opportunity to learn about the wide range of University benefits and support services available, and to attend talks, tours, workshops and sporting activities which are being held across the different University sites. Most events are free of charge; however, please see individual listings for any costs. The programme and booking options will be available soon on the Festival of Wellbeing website.
